Explanatory answers (for selected questions)

1. 'Yesterday', a past action. Verb must be in past tense 'went'.
2. Natural phenomena – Present Tense – boils.
3. 'A' is the correct option. The present continuous tense is used to express a future action, especially when it is pre-determined. Will+infinitive implies intention alone, and this intention is usually, though not necessarily, unpremeditated.
4. Present perfect tense.
5. Point of time – present perfect continuous tense.
14. both ____ and ____ correlative conjunctions.
16. glowing account – collocation.
17. Neither = none of the two — always singular — is.
18. 'a pair' singular — was.
19. A reflexive pronoun — themselves.
20. Question word used for things or place is 'which'.
22. Option 'D' is the correct answer. 'The' is correct as article 'the' is used before a noun, which by reason of locality can represent only one particular thing or before a singular noun that represents a class of things.
30. The sentence contains intransitive verb — there is no object — so passive can't be written.
33. The sentence is a Natural truth — hence Indirect speech verb doesn't change.
