

CROSSWORD

ACROSS →

- 1 The starting point from where the commas are to be kept in a place value chart.
- 5 It is an ancient civilization which had its own symbols for writing various numbers.
- 6 Who used Roman Numeration System.
- 7 To write this number using the given digits, we write the digits in ascending order.
- 10 A number gets its value according to its place in the number.

DOWN ↓

- 2 0, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 were first used to represent numbers by the
- 3 Number names are easy to write when the periods are separated by
- 4 While writing the numerals for number names the empty places are filled by
- 8 After how many digits comma is inserted in international system.
- 9 Digit that has no place value in Roman numeral.