

CROSSWORD

ACROSS →

- 3 A young plant newly grown from a seed.
- 6 The process of producing new individuals with the same characteristics as those of the parents.
- 10 The agent that helps to disperse seeds in Jamun, cherry, and apple.
- 11 The part of seed that becomes root.
- 12 The factor or agent that help an orchid plant to disperse its seeds.

DOWN ↓

- 1 The part of the seed that becomes stem.
- 2 Crops grown in the summer.
- 4 Seeds with one cotyledon.
- 5 Seeds with two cotyledons.
- 7 The swollen ends of potato plant with eyes.
- 8 The factor or agent that help to disperse the lotus and the coconut seeds.
- 9 Crops grown in the winter.