

CI4-S-PLANT LIFE-II_Medium

Across

- Name the plant in which red substance hides the green chlorophyll and appears as red coloured leaf.
- The form of food prepared plants during photosynthesis .
- To adjust in a new living condition.
- A green substance that is present in leaves.
- Shape of the stomata cells.
- The food or grains that we get from grass family.

Down

- A chain that shows a series of organisms where each member depends on the lower member in the series for food.
- Extra food is stored in the plants in the form of
- The food prepared by the process of photosynthesis.
- The gas that is released during photosynthesis.
- Removing the green pigment in a leaf.
- Iodine solution turns starch to _____ colour