CI5-S-PLANT LIFE_Easy

							1 r	е	р	2 r	0	³ d	u	С	t	i	0	n
						4 p				a		i
						1		5 _W		d		С
						u		i		i		0		•
						6 m	0	n	0	С	0	t	S
			7 _W			u		d		1		S
			a			1			-	е
			8 t	u	b	е	r	9 _S
			е			_		е
19 _k	h	a	r	i	f			е
								d
								1				_
								i			11 _r
							12 a	n	i	m	a	1	S
								g			b
											i

Across

- 1. The process of producing new individuals with the same characteristics as those of the parents.
- 6. Seeds with one cotyledon.
- 8. The swollen ends of potato plant with eyes.
- 10. Crops grown in the summer.
- 12. The agent that helps to disperse seeds in Jamun, cherry, and apple.

Down

- 2. The part of the seed that becomes root.
- 3. Seeds with two cotyledons.
- 4. The part of the seed that becomes stem.
- 5. The factor or agent that help an orchid plant to disperse its seeds.
- 7. The factor or agent that help to disperse the lotus and the coconut seeds.
- 9. A young plant newly grown from a seed.
- 11. Crops grown in the winter.